WITNESSETH:

The Receiving Party are student researchers from the College of Computer Science proposing the development of a tool to improve the Disclosing Party's "Karamay System." This system is an internal tool used by students to file complaints online.

In the course of this collaboration, the Disclosing Party will disclose certain confidential and proprietary information to the Receiving Party for the sole purpose of evaluating and developing the proposed tool.

1. DEFINITION OF CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

"Confidential Information" shall include, but not be limited to, all information, whether oral, written, or in any other form, disclosed by the Disclosing Party to the Receiving Party. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

- Details, functionalities, and any proprietary code related to the current Karamay System.
- Internal procedures, user data, and complaint handling processes.
- Technical and operational requirements for the proposed tool.
- Any other information marked as "confidential" or that a reasonable person would understand to be confidential.

2. OBLIGATIONS OF THE RECEIVING PARTY

The Receiving Party agrees to:

- Use the confidential information solely for the purpose of developing and presenting the proposed tool for their thesis.
- Hold the confidential information in strict confidence and take all reasonable measures to protect it from unauthorized disclosure.
- Not disclose, copy, reproduce, or otherwise distribute the confidential information to any third party without the prior written consent of the Disclosing Party.
- Limit access to the confidential information to only those individuals within the research group who have a need to know for the purposes of the project.

3. OWNERSHIP

All confidential information remains the sole property of the Disclosing Party. The Agreement does not grant the Receiving Party any rights, title, or interest in or to the confidential information.

4. TERM

This Agreement shall be effective as of the date herein written and shall remain in effect for a period of 3 years from the date of disclosure of the Confidential Information, or until a formal agreement is reached regarding the implementation of the proposed tool.
